February 20, 2011 Meeting Minutes Minutes submitted by Julia

In attendance were Janice, Richard and Connie, Mary and Richard Brown, Michael and Meshach, Julia, Nicole, Maddie, Journey, and our hostess Dorothy.

Mary and Richard Brown put on a Christmas puppet play using the software Garage Band for their sound track. The play sounded like a huge success and a lot of fun. They are now working on a Punch and Judy play using 1820 pattern reproductions they found online.

Laura Sheldon of ADD Community Connections is taking a group on a field trip to Richards's puppet shop on April 22nd 10:00am for a tour. Julia and company may help.

Minutes from the last meeting were reviewed. We agreed to review the videos of sculpting heads. Still looking for a permanent home for the treasury.

Frank Banks will be moving so all the puppets will need to be collected by March 9th. Janice will be picking up more puppets for the puppet library.

Motion to order flowers for Dave Greenbaum. Dave is in our thoughts.

The Westerville police will be having an event called Cops and Kids Sept. 11, 2011 that we may do the pool noodle puppets to use as our Day of Puppetry event.

Sunday February 27th West Liberty University in WV hosted Phil Huber the puppeteer in an event.

Saturday April 2, 2011 the Frisch Marionettes will be at the Dublin Abbey Theatre for a performance.

Motion to adjourn by Richard M. seconded by Connie.

We worked on sculpting heads and then got materials to start putting latex on the sculptures.

Peter & the Wolf and The Frog Prince

Frisch Marionettes presents a symphonic double show! Peter and the Wolf performed to Sergei Prokofiev's beautiful musical story and The Frog Prince set to the lively music of Dmitri Kabelevsky. Performed with "large-as-life" marionettes. Every aspect of a Frisch Marionette production is designed, handcrafted, created and recorded in their workshops.

Recommended for ages 6 & up.

Tickets: $7 adults; $5 children and seniors

Protest at the Statehouse

About 12 of Janice's and Karen Bank's puppets joined forces for a puppet protest with puppets of a nurse, a policeman, a fire dog, teachers, students, a peasant, and a "King Kasich" puppet.
